

Help Your Medicare Patients Save Money on Medication Costs in 2025

Changes to Medicare Part D in 2025 mean that patients taking brand-name prescription drugs and struggling with high costs may save on out-of-pocket (OOP) costs. You can help by ensuring your patients know what changes are coming and how to make the most of them.

All Patients Pay No More Than $2000 on Medication Costs in 2025¹

The maximum amount patients will pay OOP for medication costs is lower in 2025 than in 2024.

2024

Maximum OOP for brand-name medications*

~$3330-$3800

*Higher limits for generic products.

2025

Maximum OOP for all medications

$2000

The New Medicare Payment Plan Can Make Monthly Medication Costs More Manageable²

The payment plan allows patients to pay medication costs as monthly payments to their Medicare Part D plan instead of at the pharmacy.

Who can enroll?

All patients with Medicare Part D

When can patients enroll?

To start January 1, 2025, patients can enroll now. They can also enroll any month of the plan year

How do patients enroll?

Through the Part D sponsor by phone, online, or paper form

While available to all patients, the payment plan is considered best for patients without income and resource concerns. For patients with limited income and resources, turn the page to learn more about the Low-Income Subsidy (LIS)/Extra Help.

How Else Can We Support Medicare Patients in 2025?

Low-Income Subsidy/Extra Help³

The LIS, sometimes called “Extra Help,” is a federal program that helps people with Medicare pay for prescription drugs and lowers the costs of prescription drug coverage.

Benefits of the LIS program include:

Premium

Deductible

Copayments

$12.15

maximum for brand-name medications

Encourage Your Patients to Apply for Extra Help

Over 3.6 million people with Medicare could have potentially saved money through the LIS program in 2020.⁴ If your patient does not qualify automatically, be sure they know all patients can apply through the Social Security Administration website: <https://secure.ssa.gov/i1020/start>.
